Zachariah King Assignment 8-2 import json module use JSON load() to open student.json file function to iterate through each list item with prints let user know this is the original student list call function to print list items use append() to add new let user know this is the updated student list call function to print list items use JSON dump() to append new data to .json file notification confirming .json file was updated end